I, Angie Bain, agree to the following rules regarding the portable DVD Player I have purchased:

- I will not watch or use the DVD player at night in my room.
- I will not have DVD's in my room without permission.
- I will not use the DVD player in the tent when camping.
- I will not use the DVD to avoid normal routine activities.
- I will not watch inappropriate DVD's on the DVD player.

If any of the following rules are violated, the DVD player will be taken away and NOT returned even though Angie Bain has purchased it with her own money.

The following rules will be followed for the DVD player or the DVD player may be taken away temporarily, until Mom or Dad say she can have it back:

- Poor behavior
- Fighting with sisters
- Not doing as asked when she is watching it and chooses to use attitude because she was watching something.

The DVD player is for your enjoyment and entertainment. It will not interrupt homework, chores or other family time.
